NEGOTIATIONS UPDATE!!!

UMFA: A tentative settlement has been reached at the University of Manitoba. Further details will be available after the membership has an opportunity to look at the final deal. A ratification vote will be held later this week. CONGRATULATIONS UMFA!!!

AESES: The AESES bargaining team is back to the table today. A strike date has been set for Monday, November 16th. UWFA has called a General Meeting to discuss this issue. (See page 2)

BRANDON: The BUFA membership went out on strike this morning (November 9th). According to Joe Dolecki, BUFA's President, conciliation efforts have failed to achieve a collective agreement. Mediation is to begin tomorrow morning, November 10th, with John Scurfield appointed as Mediator for the dispute. The main issues are monetary. BUFA is asking for a 10% increase over 5 years, while the university has countered with a 2.5% increase over 3 years.

NEGOTIATIONS UPDATE!!

UWFA, in conjunction with MOFA and the University of Manitoba Faculty Association, will be organizing solidarity pickets to travel to Brandon on Thursday and Friday of this week.

Members are asked to contact either the UWFA Office (9430), Geoff Scott (9297) or MOFA President, Ed Byard (9723) to volunteer their time to walk the picket lines either Thursday, November 12th or Friday, November 13th. Travel arrangements are currently being made, and Members will be updated as further information becomes available.

Your solidarity would be greatly appreciated by BUFA!! Please try to attend, if your schedules permit.
